

Be Brilliant in the way you Hire.

Skills-based questions to hire any role

Speed up your hiring process by digitizing the evaluation of key questions to provide your hiring managers insights about candidate skill levels even before the first interaction.

Anonymized evaluations level the playing field

Eliminate unconscious bias in your early screening process to ensure all qualified candidates get an equal opportunity.

Evaluated by the experts

Distribute the evaluation of candidates to subject matter experts within your company to evaluate candidates based on what they can do, not what they write on their resume.

Never lose a candidate

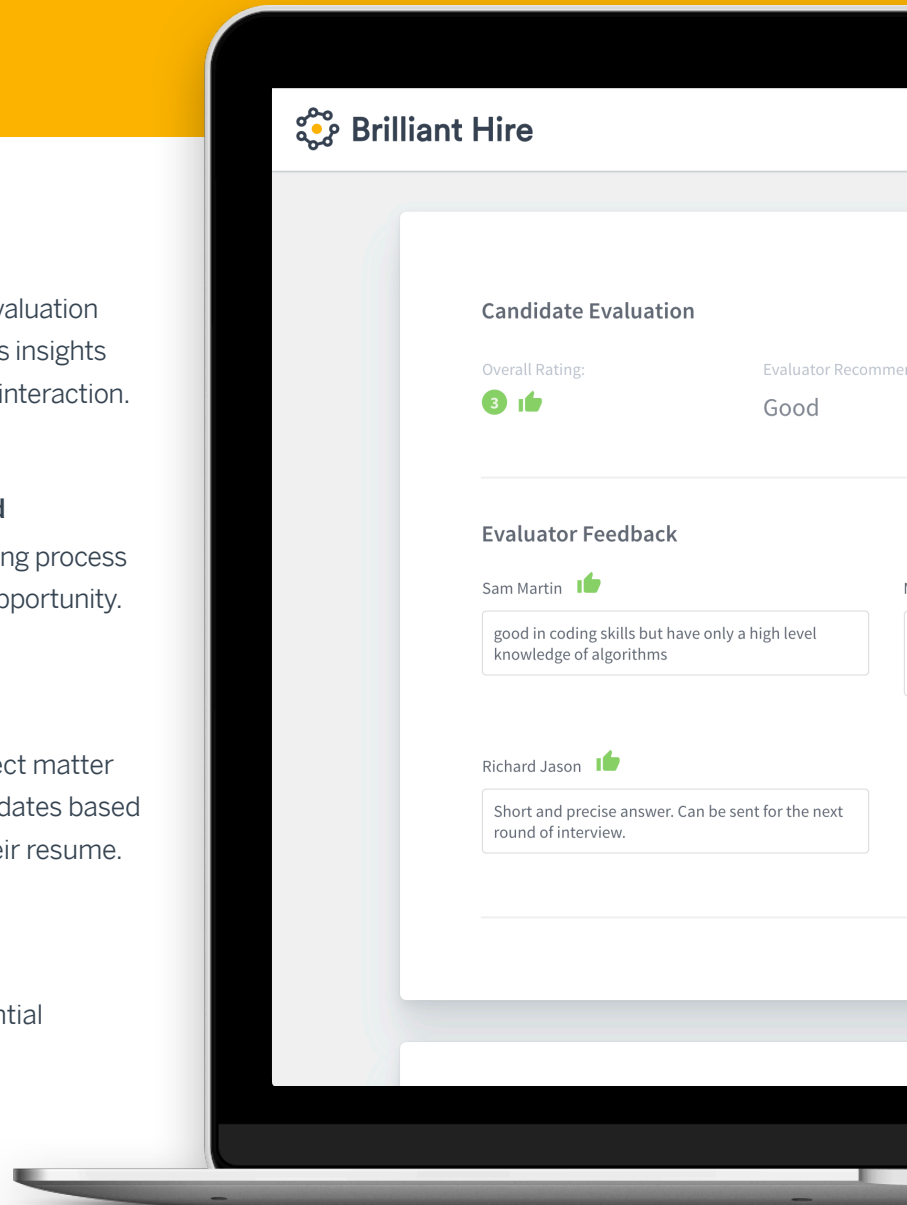

Use Brilliant Hire assessments to identify potential candidates within your ATS system.

Brilliant Hire allows your experts to evaluate candidate's skill and empower you to fast-track your hiring without bias.

“Brilliant Hire saved me hours of my time by prioritizing only the best candidates. It was also amazing to evaluate candidates in an un-biased approach: determining their qualifications based only on their responses rather than their resumes.”
